Bodhi Tree Continues to Make a Push for Technology-Driven Multi-Asset Class Solutions

OAK BROOK, ILL. (PRWEB) DECEMBER 05, 2018

Bodhi Tree Asset Management (“Bodhi Tree”) today announces that it has purchased a minority stake in Sudrania Fund Services (“Sudrania”) as part of its strategy to create a scalable front to back-office multi-asset class solution for RIAs, Family Office, and Endowment model investors, all backed by cloud technology. Bodhi Tree offers quantitative tactical asset allocation strategies via Fund and SMA structures to institutional and HNWI investors. Bodhi Tree is seeding technology-focused companies to create a diverse menu of front to back-office solutions for sophisticated investors.

“We chose Sudrania Fund Services for their in-depth knowledge and understanding of buy-side fund operations and ability to deliver a modern technology solution recognizing the need for handling more data and integrate more processes. Sudrania’s approach of using technology as a tool to effectively provide a hand holding and white glove service to its clients is very refreshing,” said Shalin Madan, CIO of Bodhi Tree. “Sudrania is excited to have Bodhi Tree as an investor,” said Nilesh Sudrania, Founder & CEO of Sudrania Fund Services. “Bodhi Tree understands the importance of technology in the investment management business from front to back-office, especially in the ever-increasing demand for transparency and performance by the investors, and consequently asset managers. Bodhi Tree’s contribution in helping with the strategic direction of our business is of immense value.”

Sudrania has developed a comprehensive software, Seamless Solution™, for buy-side investment managers, which removes the redundant data and processes plaguing current solutions. With a single
